A FULL HOUSE BEATS ALL

— Presented by the NYDC —

CHRISTOPHER COLEMAN
He's known for his love of clean lines and bold, high spirited designs.

As New York's premiere space for furniture and design, the New York Design Center's house is always full. From expert interior design advice to avant-garde contemporary innovations to classic creations, the NYDC has been devoted to transforming living and working environments for almost a century. With nearly 100 showrooms, the NYDC represents over 300 lines of furniture, fabric and decorative accessories.

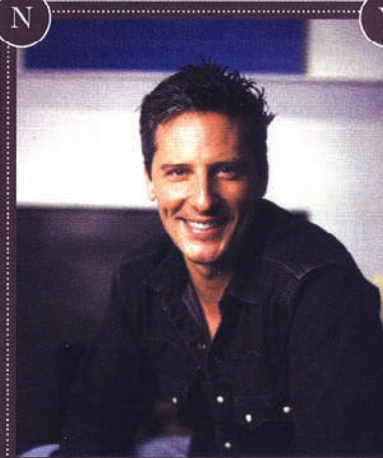

CELERIE KEMBLE
Her mix of vintage, traditional and modern styles makes her the toast of NY and Palm Beach.

LAURA KIRAR
An artist at heart, she mixes luxe materials, elegant details and timeless design.

And now that the NYDC is celebrating its 80th anniversary, the deck is stacked in your favor. On November 14 the NYDC and domino, with co-sponsors Odegard and Profiles, invite you to an exclusive NYDC Designer Poker Party, with gaming, prizes, cocktails and the NYDC's biggest names in design!

DOUG WILSON
This man is a triple threat—designer, author and philanthropist—with designs that are stylishly urbane.

Find out how our featured NYDC designers play their style cards right.
