

July/August 2008

Hamptons Resident

Hamptons RESIDENT

July/August 2008

Hamptons Resident

Unexpected touches of color and a sense of humor make the designs of Christopher Coleman stylishly livable. For a recent project, Coleman designed a brand new loft from scratch in Dumbo — the same neighborhood where his studio is based. To combat boring, “cookie cutter” architecture, he played up the apartment’s high ceilings and artsy surroundings with bright pieces and playful patterns. —Heather Corcoran

