

The Most Inspiring Design Books of All Time

25 of our favorite decorators, landscape architects, and artists tell us which titles helped them think, see, and dream. (A few may surprise you.)

Stuart Davis,
American Painter

BY LOWERY STOKES SIMS

Davis dazzles with high-keyed color. I love his palette of red, green, black, and white, and use this book to search for color schemes for my work.

—Christopher Coleman,
interior designer, New York City